Akuttjournalen - The Scandinavian Journal of Trauma, Resuscitation and Emergency Medicine (www.akuttjournalen.com) is the largest journal covering pre- and in-hospital acute care medicine in Scandinavia. It is read by more than 6000 intensivists, anaesthesiologists, surgeons, paediatricians, general and emergency physicians, nurses and paramedics, of which many are important decision makers.

In addition, Akuttjournalen publishes NAForum, the official journal of Norwegian Society of Anaesthesiology.
